Musical acts selected for Seabee Day 2015

Free and open to the public

GULFPORT, Miss. – Planning officials for Seabee Day 2015 have named three musical acts performing at the Naval Construction Battalion Center (Seabee Center) April 11.

Myles Sharp Band featuring Rebecca Powers will kick off Seabee Day 2015 with some “rock and roll, blues, hippie music, fun party stuff and songs from the 80's” beginning at 9 a.m. After the 11 a.m. Welcoming Ceremony, 17-year-old country music newcomer, Tiera, will perform from noon to 1 p.m. Closing out the day is the powerhouse country music group, 90 Degrees West.

While the music makes the day worth attending in its own right, there is so much more. Seabee Day 2015 will feature tons of military displays, car show, weapons demonstrations, free carnival rides, free kids zone, games, food, arts and crafts, and plenty more.

This community event is free and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. The Navy base is located on the west end of Pass Road in Gulfport. Everyone is invited on board for a first-hand look at the Navy's premier construction force. Seabee Day 2015 highlights the mission and accomplishments of the men and women of the Naval Construction Force, affectionately known as the Seabees.
